POLITICAL MONITOR NO. 9

Note: Analysis of the government & parliament set up after the 7 November 2010 election will be provided in later editions of the Political Monitor.

This edition provides details of parliamentary committees, etc., which may not be of interest to most readers - our apologies. However, the idea is to try and provide as complete a picture of Burma/Myanmar as possible - hence the minute details.

PYITHU HLUTTAW BILL COMMITTEE FORMED

A 15-member parliamentary body has been established in the Pyithu Hluttaw (Lower House) to scrutinize submitted bills.<sup>1</sup>

The duties of the committee are:

- (1) The committee shall vet the bills based on the following points.
  - (a) Whether or not bills conform with the State policies and objectives,
  - (b) Whether or not bills conform with provisions of the constitution of the Republic of the Union of Myanmar and existing laws,
  - (c) Whether or not bills are designed to safeguard the interests of the nation and the people,
  - (d) Whether or not bills carry points that can harm State perpetuation and security,
  - (e) Whether or not bills conform with objective conditions of the State,
  - (f) Whether or not bills harm security of the public and their property,
  - (g) Whether or not bills carry words and terms that can harm national unity,
  - (h) Whether or not powers between a ministry and another, and between a governmental department and enterprise and another are mingled,
  - (i) If a bill is drawn according to responsibilities enumerated in international or regional agreements and MoUs, or international or regional agreements between regions, whether or not the bill conforms with the points agreed by Myanmar in the agreements and MoUs, and whether or not the bill harms the State sovereignty,
  - (j) Whether or not the bills carry all related points on policy relevant law,
  - (k) Whether or not provisions of the bills are practicable or not,
  - (l) Whether or not the bills carry all provisions to implement their purposes,
- (2) Committee members, when assigned duties by the Pyithu Hluttaw Speaker, shall serve as members of the joint bill committee to be formed with the approval of the Pyidaungsu Hluttaw Speaker,
- (3) The committee shall carry out duties occasionally assigned by Pyithu Hluttaw,
- (4) The committee shall assess bills as the same ways in Pyithu Hluttaw. However,
  - (a) There is no need to ascertain support regarding tabling motions and submitting suggestions,
