

Restoration Council of the Shan State
Statement on the 66th Anniversary of Shan State Resistance Day

Date: 21 May 2024

1. Shan State Resistance Day is the day in honour of the patriots, leaders and soldiers who have sacrificed their lives and limbs in the journey of lengthy years of resistance. On this resistance day, Restoration Council of the Shan State (RCSS) makes offering and prays for the officials and soldiers sacrificing their lives for the nation and country.
2. As every citizen of Shan State has the duty of resisting injustice, RCSS urges people of Shan State to participate in the resistance movement.
3. In order to solve each and every problem, RCSS will approach every organization through peaceful negotiation.
4. For the transformation of administration into federal democratic union, RCSS will try to cooperate with every party and discuss for the implementation.
5. With the responsibilities in existence, countries of witness to the NCA signing ceremony are requested to help find the solutions to the problems of the Republic of the Union of Myanmar.
